The net worth accomplishment is nothing to shake a stick at... congrats. For me, this year has been mixed. Went well: saved a S-load of money, finalized the life plan for the next ten years which is totally doable and very exciting, optimized the apartment building I own (all the hard work is done), and got married.

BEST ANSWER: Only if you offset the hinges. If you do that, the legs are not in the same relative position to each corner and may look oddly placed.. What I did to keep the legs in the same relative position to each corner of the table was to have each leg fold up in a different direction in a clockwise or counter-clockwise manner.(just like the folding legs of a card table).
