Some friends and I used the Docklands Light Railway (DLR) earlier this year. We checked with someone working at the station that Oyster Cards could be used on the DLR. But they didn't know where we would have to touch in and out. We got to the DLR train but still couldn't see anywhere to touch in. The platform was packed as there was an event in London that day that a lot of people took the ...

I've done both of them before at DLR, been there too many times for my own good . Just surprises me that both VLR and RAG are included, as the DLR GU doesn't have them. Also surprised that both of the tests aren't listed in the provided preperation folder, even though I know there are official CBT's for both of them.
