Mrs. Tina Darling is one of those individuals who sees a problem and then does not rest until there's a solution. In this case, the problem was the addition of a school crosswalk for elementary and middle school students that was intended to provide safe passage to and from school for our kiddos in the neighborhoods to the east and south, but because old habits...

Several years ago, I took a rather astonishing degree of encouragement from a study examining how babies learn to walk. I'm not sure how I found the research, but I must have gone looking for it. Perhaps I was trying to shed the expectation that as our children grow up things shouldn't be so hard for them.
