On an APA-style reference page, the rules for titles are a little different. In short, a title you would italicize within the body of a paper will also be italicized on a reference page. However, a title you'd place in quotation marks within the body of the paper (such as the title of an article within a journal) will be written in normal lettering and will not be in quotation marks.

When writing a paper, do I use italics for all titles ...

The Salem witch trials were a regrettable episode in colonial American history. In Salem, Massachusetts, in 1692, numerous innocent people were convicted on charges of making pacts with devils and demons and executed by hanging. The trials themselves were a farce, including the submission of 'evidence' such as a fondness for cats or the presence of a wart.
