Based on its financial performance alone, Rightmove is probably the most impressive business I have ever looked at in over 20 years as an analyst and financial journalist. Its ability to grow while achieving incredibly high profit margins and cash generation with very little capital investment has delivered sensational returns for its investors.

Can anything stop the Rightmove juggernaut?

I found a use of the phrase that predates the Maggie reference by a decade in an 1884 student publication of the University of Michigan called The Chronicle. It occurs at the end of a short story about a man courting a woman who says she cannot marry him but won't tell him why.
